Twelve Indicators of Foolishness in Office

Stultitia by Giotto—from his fresco of seven virtues and their opposite vices in the Scrovegni Chapel. Stultitia (folly) was shown as the opposite of Prudentia (prudence).

THE WORD OF GOD emphatically states that there is no place for fools or foolishness in those who are involved in the formation of public policy.

Over and over again in the book of Proverbs primarily, and also in many other books, Scripture makes it clear that foolish behavior should be avoided in one's self and one's friends, that foolishness leads to faulty thinking, disastrous outcomes, and ruination. Most important, in the life of believers, foolish behavior should be overcome through the study of Scripture and by listening to and obeying the Holy Spirit's quiet voice of correction when we go astray.

Often we become so accustomed to our way of thinking, doing things, speaking, and the habits of our behavior that we don't even recognize that our actions and responses are foolish, and as such, are sins. This points to the need to become increasingly sensitive to what the Bible says is foolish.

“I SO AGREE with Capitol Ministries’ philosophy to leave politics out of their ministry.

I don’t mix politics with faith either. My goal is to make it to God’s kingdom and help other people make it there too. I happen to be elected because God put me here and I will stay here until he has other plans for me.

There are a lot of groups and a lot of pastors who come into my office. I don’t turn anybody away. But some of them want to talk to me about legislation. I stop them because if you want to come in and minister to me, don’t try to push an agenda.

Of course I vote on legislation, and I have to be accountable to God for the decisions I make, but I don’t want to have a pastor come in and tell me how to vote.

If we focus on changing hearts and minds rather than on what legislation defines us, as Christians we would get a lot further. I like that Capitol Ministries has that vision too.”

This week in our study, Twelve Indicators Of Foolishness In Office, we take a look at what God’s Word says about fools and foolish behavior. I suggest you read this study carefully to see if you recognize any of these deadly signs in yourself. There may very well be an opportunity for character building — increasing in Christlikeness — an opportunity to see yourself through the lens of Scripture and consequently, the opportunity to work to jettison some of these negative traits and replace them with ones that are pleasing to God.

Read on, my friends.

I. INTRODUCTION

This week we will study all that Solomon said about foolishness in the OT book of Proverbs. The Hebrew word for fool (kesil) basically means “a stupid fellow.” He is marked by or resulting from dullness or unintelligent thinking: SENSELESS (M&W).

IN THE CONTEXT OF PROVERBS, FOOLS ARE THOSE WHO REJECT THE COUNSEL OF GOD, WHICH MAKES THEIR THINKING UNINTELLIGENT AND SUBSEQUENT DECISIONS POOR.

Said another way, because fools reject God’s knowledge, they lack skill in making right choices in life. And they end up reaping what they’ve sown.

Further on this, The fool has said in his heart, “There is no God” (Psalm 14:1). Even though Romans 1:19 states Because that which is known about God is evident within them; for God made it evident to them, a fool suppresses and attempts to deny that intellectual understanding. Such suppression of inner circuitry, as installed by the Creator Himself, is evidence of stupidity — a will of resistance to doing what is right. Throughout your study of Proverbs, you will see this often and simple contrast between the two.

In this study, a qualifying note is important up front: a foolish versus wise person is not necessarily always in directly parallel to an unbeliever or a Christian respectively. Some believers in their spiritual immaturity act foolishly more often than wisely. And there are many unbelievers who live according to biblical precepts even though they have never bowed the knee to Christ’s Lordship. They are to some degree adept at living life (as they borrow without accreditation) from God’s handbook on how to live skillfully. This distinction will become important in terms of later lesson applications.

Let us begin in the first chapter of Proverbs where wisdom is personified in the literary style of Solomon:

1:20-33 Wisdom shouts in the street, She lifts her voice in the square; ²¹ At the head of the noisy streets she cries out; At the entrance of the gates in the city she utters her sayings: ²² “How long, O naive ones, will you love being simple-minded? And scoffers delight themselves in scoffing And fools hate knowledge?” ²³ “Turn to my reproof, Behold, I will pour out my spirit on you; I will make my words known to you.” ²⁴ “Because I called and you refused, I stretched out my hand and no one paid attention;” ²⁵ And you neglected all my counsel And did not want my reproof; ²⁶ I will also laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your dread comes, ²⁷ When your dread comes like a storm And your calamity comes like a whirlwind, When distress and anguish come upon you. ²⁸ “Then they will call on me, but I will not answer; They will seek me diligently but they will not find me,” ²⁹ Because they hated knowledge And did not choose the fear of the LORD. ³⁰ “They would not accept my counsel, They spurned all my reproof.” ³¹ “So they shall eat of the fruit of their own way And be satiated with their own devices.” ³² “For the waywardness of the naive will kill them, And the complacency of fools will destroy them.” ³³ “But he who listens to me shall live securely And will be at ease from the dread of evil.”

In this lengthy passage, summarily, dire consequences come to those who reject wisdom and live foolishly. The stark contrasting features between the two can be further highlighted in the following three Proverbs:

1:7 Fools despise wisdom and instruction.

8:5 O fools, understand wisdom.

10:23 Doing wickedness is like sport to a fool, And so is wisdom to a man of understanding.

ACCORDINGLY, SEEKING THE KNOWLEDGE OF GOD AND HIS UNDERSTANDING ON MATTERS IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN NIGHT AND DAY; FOOLISHNESS VERSUS WISDOM.

It follows that Proverbs admonishes one to abandon foolishness:

9:6 “Forsake your folly and live, And proceed in the way of understanding.”

Folly (pethi) is akin to foolishness. It means “simple or open-minded,” in the sense that the absolutes of Scripture are superseded by one’s own thinking (cf. Prov. 28:26). Solomon commands that one need forsake the belief that truth is derived from self and instead seek the understanding of God as revealed in His Book.

HOW WISE OF A PERSON — MEASURABLY SPEAKING — ARE YOU? CONVERSELY, HOW FOOLISH ARE YOU?

What follows are twelve biblical

♥ VERSE OF THE WEEK

1 Corinthians 6:11

Such were some of [us] but you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God.

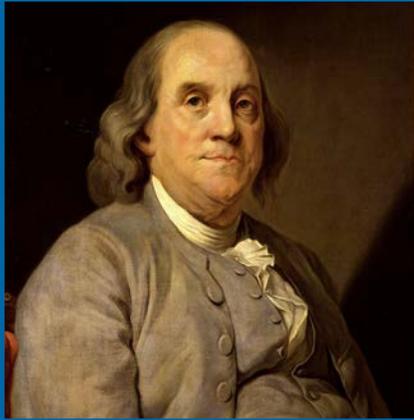

Pray for the foolish in our midst, that our great Savior might reach down from heaven and save all the more.

Benjamin Franklin

“In reality there is perhaps no one of our natural Passions so hard to subdue as Pride. Disguise it, struggle with it, beat it down, stifle it, mortify it as much as one pleases, it is still alive, and will now and then peek out and show itself.”

indicators of foolishness to weigh yourself against. What foolish behaviors will you cast off today as a result of this Bible study?

II. TWELVE INDICATORS OF FOOLISH BEHAVIOR

A. IT’S FOOLISH TO DISHONOR PARENTS

Scripture speaks about always honoring your parents: it is the sixth of the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:12; cf. Eph. 6:2). The Hebrew word for honor (kabab) has the idea of “weighing heavily.” Those who do not possess such an attitude of respect and nobility are indicated by the following Proverbs to be categorized as fools.

3:35 The wise will inherit honor, But fools display dishonor.

10:1 A wise son makes a father glad, But a foolish son is a grief to his mother.

13:1 A wise son accepts his father’s discipline, But a scoffer does not listen to rebuke.

15:5 A fool rejects his father’s discipline, But he who regards reproof is sensible.

15:20 A wise son makes a father glad, But a foolish man despises his mother.

17:21 He who sires a fool does so to his sorrow, And the father of a fool has no joy.

17:25 A foolish son is a grief to his father, And bitterness to her who bore him.

19:13 A foolish son is destruction to his father, And the contentions of a wife are a constant dripping.

Conclusively, those who disrespect their parents in any way are classified biblically as fools. Are you foolish on this count?

B. IT’S FOOLISH TO GO ASTRAY

5:23 He will die for lack of instruction, And in the greatness of his folly he will go astray.

Those who refuse God’s instruction via the clear precepts of His word, or per this passage, its amplification through His pastor-teachers (that is, legitimate teachers whom He has given to His Church per Ephesians 4:11-12) end up askance in this life. “Committing errors” is the literal Hebrew translation for astray.

PEOPLE WHO REJECT THE AUTHORITY OF SCRIPTURE HAVE NO FIRM FOUNDATION OR RUDDER FOR LIVING; AS A RESULT, THEY ARE ADRIFT AT SEA, BLOWN BY THE WINDS OF A FALLEN WORLD, ASTRAY IN LIFE.

Such states the wisest man to ever live. Judges 17:6b echoes this idea wherein it says of Israel, every man did what was right in his own eyes. Are you astray in life? Such is indicative of a fool.

C. IT'S FOOLISH TO COMMIT SEXUAL SIN

7:22 Suddenly he follows her, As an ox goes to the slaughter;

9:13-18 The woman of folly is boisterous, She is naive and knows nothing. She sits at the doorway of her house, On a seat by the high places of the city, Calling to those who pass by, Who are making their paths straight: "Whoever is naive, let him turn in here," And to him who lacks understanding she says, "Stolen water is sweet; And bread eaten in secret is pleasant." But he does not know that the dead are there, That her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

In polite euphemistic language Solomon states that the sin of adultery is evidence of foolishness. It is foolhardy to commit adultery and destroy the trust and respect of your spouse — as well as the security and well-being of your children. How stupid to trade all that away for a moment of time!

D. IT'S FOOLISH TO REJECT CORRECTION

Proverbs uses the term understanding to describe those who are teachable from God's Word — those who are open to being corrected by it, who desire growth and conformation, and those who want to increase in discernment (cf. Rom. 12: 1 & 2). Fools are just the opposite in attitude.

9:7 He who corrects a scoffer gets dishonor for himself; And he who reproves a wicked man gets insults for himself.

9:8 Do not reprove a scoffer, or he will hate you, Reprove a wise man and he will love you.

10:8 The wise of heart will receive commands, But a babbling fool will be ruined.

12:15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes, But a wise man is he who listens to counsel.

14:9 Fools mock at sin, But among the upright there is good will.

15:12 A scoffer does not love one who reproves him, He will not go to the wise.

17:10 A rebuke goes deeper into one who has understanding Than a hundred blows into a fool.

ARE YOU SELF-ABSORBED — CLOSED OFF TO DISCERNING GOD'S WILL IN YOUR LIFE? TO THE DEGREE THAT YOU ARE IS THE DEGREE THAT YOU ARE FOOLISH.

Develop an attitude of want and desire for God's truth. You will gain discernment and skill at living life throughout the whole course of your life.

E. IT'S FOOLISH TO MOUTH OFF

Many times in my ministry I have encountered people who have a problem with swearing. That matter, however, is only one among a plethora of foolish

William Samuel Johnson

"Imprint deep upon your minds the principles of piety towards God, and a reverence and fear of His holy name. The fear of God is the beginning of wisdom and its [practice] is everlasting [happiness] . . ."

— William Samuel Johnson, signer of the Constitution; member of the Continental Congress; judge; framer of the Bill of Rights; President of Columbia College; U.S. Senator.

E. Edwards Beardsley, Life and Times of William Samuel Johnson (Boston: Houghton, Mifflin and Company, 1886), pp. 141-145.

John Hancock

“Sensible of the importance of Christian piety and virtue to the order and happiness of a state, I cannot but earnestly commend to you every measure for their support and encouragement.”

—John Hancock, signer of the Declaration of Independence; President of Congress; Revolutionary General; Governor of Massachusetts.

vocal cord exercises. Since the mouth of a Public Servant is central to their vocation, this point is deserving of extra ink. (It could be a Bible study alone in its own right.)

DO YOU KNOW AT LEAST EIGHT WAYS YOU CAN BE FOOLISH WITH YOUR TONGUE?

Be sensitive to each of these speech impediments today:

1. VOLUMINOUS TALKING

10:10 He who winks the eye causes trouble, And a babbling fool will be ruined.

10:14 Wise men store up knowledge, But with the mouth of the foolish, ruin is at hand.

14:33 Wisdom rests in the heart of one who has understanding, But in the hearts of fools it is made known.

17:28 Even a fool, when he keeps silent, is considered wise; When he closes his lips, he is considered prudent.

18:2 A fool does not delight in understanding, But only in revealing his own mind.

29:20 Do you see a man who is hasty in his words? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

2. SLANDERING OTHERS

10:18 He who conceals hatred has lying lips, And he who spreads slander is a fool.

SLANDER IS A PROLIFIC, DEADLY POISON THAT WAFTS IN THE HALLWAYS ON THE HILL: “UTTERANCE OF FALSE CHARGES OR MISREPRESENTATIONS WHICH DEFAME AND DAMAGE REPUTATION.” DON’T LET IT BE A PART OF YOUR VERBAL DISCIPLINES.

3. GIBBERISH PRATE

Gibberish speech is “unintelligible or meaningless language” (M&W). Notice the following biblical words that are used to underscore the presence of this speech pattern.

12:23 A prudent man conceals knowledge, But the heart of fools proclaims folly.

13:16 Every prudent man acts with knowledge, But a fool displays folly.

15:2 The tongue of the wise makes knowledge acceptable, But the mouth of fools spouts folly.

14:7 Leave the presence of a fool, Or you will not discern words of knowledge.

15:7 The lips of the wise spread knowledge, But the hearts of fools are not so.

In each of these Proverbs, there is a contrast between knowledge and folly. Folly is the characteristic speech of what Proverbs identifies as a simpleton. Don't use your mouth to vocalize matters of unimportance. Let your speech be filled with scriptural, eternal truths and matters of substance that bring glory to your Creator (cf. Eph. 5:19) and acumen to your profession. May your speech be substantive.

4. DESTRUCTIVE COMMENTS

14:3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod for his back, But the lips of the wise will protect them.

24:9 The devising of folly is sin, And the scoffer is an abomination to men.

Boastful, rash, intemperate speech vividly portrays a haughty spirit that stems from the enunciations of foolish people. Does your speech land you into difficulty?

5. MISLEADING STATEMENTS

14:8 The wisdom of the sensible is to understand his way, But the foolishness of fools is deceit.

17:7 Excellent speech is not fitting for a fool, Much less are lying lips to a prince.

Deceit and lying are indicative of a heart bent on the practice of delusion or fraud.

6. ARGUMENTATIVE SPEECH

18:6-7 A fool's lips bring strife,

And his mouth calls for blows. A fool's mouth is his ruin, And his lips are the snare of his soul.

20:3 Keeping away from strife is an honor for a man, But any fool will quarrel.

This kind of person is like a tennis player who comes to the net every play. It's not very enjoyable.

7. TALKING OVER OTHERS

18:13 He who gives an answer before he hears, It is folly and shame to him.

Some folks speak before you've made your point. Still others listen and are thinking — but they lack patience to wait until it is their turn to speak. This is a very common, bad habit (that my wife reminds me about too often!).

8. SWEARING

19:1 Better is a poor man who walks in his integrity Than he who is perverse in speech and is a fool.

Beloved, which of these sins of the tongue categorize you as a fool? Memorize and meditate on appropriate Proverbs. Drive foolishness from your speech. Discipline your mouth! (Cf. James 3:1-12).

E. IT'S FOOLISH TO REJECT DISCIPLINE

11:29 He who troubles his own

Thomas Paine

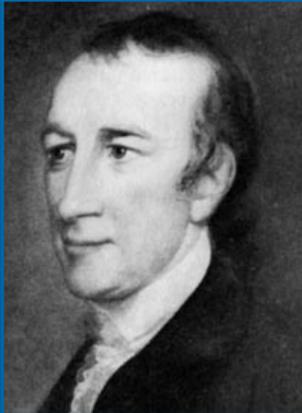

"Now is the seedtime of continental union, faith and honor. The least fracture now, will be like a name engraved with the point of a pin on the tender rind of a young oak; the wound would enlarge with the tree, and posterity read in it full grown characters."

— Thomas Paine English-American political activist, philosopher, political theorist, revolutionary, journalist, author of the two most influential pamphlets at the start of the American Revolution.

Thomas Paine, Common Sense, 1776

Thomas Stone

“Shun all giddy, loose, and wicked company; they will corrupt and lead you into vice and bring you to ruin. Seek the company of sober, virtuous and good people . . . which will lead [you] to solid happiness.”

— Thomas Stone, signer of the Declaration of Independence; selected as a delegate to the Constitutional Convention, lawyer, member of the committee that formed the Articles of Confederation in 1777; served as President of Congress in 1784

John Sanderson, Biography of the Signers to the Declaration of Independence (Philadelphia: R. W. Pomeroy, 1824), Vol. IX, p. 333, Thomas Stone to his son, October 1787 house will inherit wind, And the foolish will be servant to the wisehearted.

17:16 Why is there a price in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom, When he has no sense?

The point of the aforementioned Proverb is that a fool cannot even purchase wisdom because he doesn't sense a need for it in the first place. Do you need the constant discipline of another to live right? Therein is a display of respective foolishness. Learn to be obedient to God when there is no one watching.

G. IT'S FOOLISH TO DISPLAY ANGER

12:16 A fool's anger is known at once, But a prudent man conceals dishonor.

14:29 He who is slow to anger has great understanding, But he who is quick-tempered exalts folly.

29:8 Scorners set a city aflame, But wise men turn away anger.

29:11 A fool always loses his temper, But a wise man holds it back.

Anger, apart from righteous indignation, is always a manifestation of selfishness. Anger is an indication of foolishness.

H. IT'S FOOLISH TO LACK HUMILITY

14:16 A wise man is cautious and turns away from evil, But a fool is arrogant and careless.

21:24 “Proud,” “Haughty,” “Scoffer,” are his names, Who acts with insolent pride.

28:26 He who trusts in his own heart is a fool, But he who walks wisely will be delivered.

30:32 If you have been foolish in exalting yourself, Or if you have plotted evil, put your hand on your mouth.

Arrogance is a sure sign of foolish behavior.

I. IT'S FOOLISH TO REJECT KNOWLEDGE

THROUGHOUT SCRIPTURE, THE PURSUIT OF THE REAL KNOWLEDGE OF GOD — GAINING AN UNDERSTANDING OF HIS CHARACTER AND ATTRIBUTE — IS TANTAMOUNT TO WISDOM.

(Again, that is why in part God gifts His people with Pastor-teachers per Ephesians 4:11-12); they are to best be seen as spiritual coaches to help you grow in God's knowledge and wisdom.

14:18 The naive inherit foolishness, But the sensible are crowned with knowledge.

15:14 The mind of the intelligent seeks knowledge, But the mouth of fools feeds on folly.

15:21 Folly is joy to him who lacks sense, But a man of understanding walks straight.

16:22 Understanding is a fountain of life to one who has it, But the discipline of fools is folly.

17:24 Wisdom is in the presence of the one who has understanding, But the eyes of a fool are on the ends of the earth.

Ends of the earth refers to a fool's aimlessness, and often random fixations that capture his attention, temporarily filling the void that only an understanding of God can.

10:21 The lips of the righteous feed many, But fools die for lack of understanding.

SPIRITUAL FELLOWSHIP GROUPS WHERE THERE IS VERY LITTLE OR NO IMPARTATION OF THE SCRIPTURES — INFUSING IN OTHERS THE KNOWLEDGE OF GOD — SHOULD BE RE-LABELED “SPIRITUAL FOLLY GROUPS.” IT IS FOLLY TO SUBSTITUTE ANYTHING FOR THE KNOWLEDGE OF GOD.

J. FOOLS ARE VOID OF BLESSINGS

13:19 Desire realized is sweet to the soul, But it is an abomination to fools to turn away from evil.

13:20 He who walks with wise men will be wise, But the companion of fools will suffer harm.

14:24 The crown of the wise is their riches, But the folly of fools is foolishness.

19:10 Luxury is not fitting for a fool; Much less for a slave to rule over princes.

21:20 There is precious treasure and oil in the dwelling of the wise, But a foolish man swallows it up.

God in His graciousness blesses the wise and obedient. Given God's propensity to bless wise and obedient behavior to Him, if follows that to lack blessings in life is directly proportional to foolishness.

K. IT'S FOOLISH TO BE SELF-DESTRUCTIVE

Akin to the previous indicator of foolishness, a fool never experiences the blessings one derives in this life from obedience to God and His Word — and foremost, from repenting and trusting in Christ for salvation. A hard life is in order for those who, in their stubbornness and rebellion, reject their Maker; they reap what they have sown before Almighty God.

14:1 The wise woman builds her house, But the foolish tears it down with her own hands.

14:35 The king's favor is toward a servant who acts wisely, But his anger is toward him who acts shamefully.

17:12 Let a man meet a bear robbed of her cubs, Rather than

Joseph Story

“Republics are created by the virtue, public spirit, and intelligence of the citizens. They fall when the wise are banished from the public councils, because they dare to be honest, and the profligate are rewarded, because they flatter the people, in order to betray them.”

— Joseph Story, U.S. Congressman; “Father of American Jurisprudence” U.S. Supreme Court Justice appointed by President James Madison.

Commentaries on the Constitution, 1833

John Witherspoon

“The people in general ought to have regard to the moral character of those whom they invest with authority either in the legislative, executive, or judicial branches.”

—John Witherspoon, signer of the Declaration of Independence; ratifier of the U.S. Constitution; Member of the Continental Congress; President of Princeton.

The Works of John Witherspoon (Edinburgh: J. Ogle, 1815), Vol. IV, p. 267 a fool in his folly.

19:3 The foolishness of man ruins his way, And his heart rages against the LORD.

19:29 Judgments are prepared for scoffers, And blows for the back of fools.

22:3 The prudent sees the evil and hides himself, But the naive go on, and are punished for it.

Foolish people self-destruct. Theirs is a hard life indeed.

L. IT'S FOOLISH TO BE INTOXICATED

20:1 Wine is a mocker, strong drink a brawler, And whoever is intoxicated by it is not wise.

There is no place for intoxication amongst Public Servants. Likened to all the 11 indicators of foolishness preceding it, it is totally unacceptable for a leader.

In summary, these 12 matters are what Solomon states definitively and comprehensively as the behaviors and beliefs of foolish people. Herein then is a systematic theology on foolishness. All fools are in dire need of Christ and the empowerment of the Holy Spirit to live victoriously over the sinful aspirations of our fallen flesh.

Now that we have comprehensively defined from Proverbs what the 12 indications of a fool are, it is now appropriate to explore what Solomon says about interacting with such people:

III. TEN TIPS FOR DEALING WITH FOOLS

Proverbs 26:1-12 has much to say about how one should interact with a fool. Notice the practical advice that Solomon is passing along to his son who would hold public office — and ostensibly to you who hold office. In addition, you will notice in what follows that I have added other pertinent Proverbs that fit with the teachings of Proverbs 26. All of what follows presupposes your spiritual discernment, the ability to ascertain the difference between a wise, Christ-honoring individual on one hand and a fool on the other. Due to the lengthiness of this study I will only list the Proverbs and refrain from comment.

A. DO NOT HONOR FOOLS

26:1 Like snow in summer and like rain in harvest, So honor is not fitting for a fool.

26:8 Like one who binds a stone in a sling, So is he who gives honor to a fool.

B. KEEP YOUR DISTANCE FROM FOOLS

27:3 A stone is heavy and the sand weighty, But the provocation of a fool is heavier than both of them.

27:12 A prudent man sees evil and hides himself; The naive proceed and pay the penalty.

C. DISCIPLINE FOOLS

26:3 A whip is for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, And a rod for the back of fools.

D. DO NOT DEBATE A FOOL

23:9 Do not speak in the hearing of a fool, For he will despise the wisdom of your words.

26:4 Do not answer a fool according to his folly, Or you will also be like him.

E. BE SHREWD IN DEALING WITH FOOLS

26:5 Answer a fool as his folly deserves, That he not be wise in his own eyes.

29:9 When a wise man has a controversy with a foolish man, The foolish man either rages or laughs, and there is no rest.

F. DO NOT RELY ON A FOOL

26:6 He cuts off his own feet and drinks violence, Who sends a message by the hand of a fool.

25:19 Like a bad tooth and an unsteady foot Is confidence in a faithless man in time of trouble.

G. FOOLS TEND NOT TO CHANGE

26:7 Like the legs which are useless to the lame, So is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

26:9 Like a thorn which falls into the hand of a drunkard, So is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

26:11 Like a dog that returns to its vomit Is a fool who repeats his folly.

26:12 Do you see a man wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

27:22 Though you pound a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with crushed grain, Yet his foolishness will not depart from him.

H. DO NOT HIRE A FOOL*

26:10 Like an archer who wounds everyone, So is he who hires a fool or who hires those who pass by.

In addition to Proverbs 26, Solomon adds some other passages that fit here to round out our list of 10 tips.

I. FOOLS HAVE NO PLACE ON YOUR STAFF*

22:10 Drive out the scoffer, and contention will go out, Even strife and dishonor will cease.

WISE IS THE BELIEVER IN THE CAPITOL WHO TOLERATES NOT THE EXISTENCE OR SUSTENANCE OF FOOLS.

In that contention will go out, and strife and dishonor will cease after their removal, it is the continual duty of the follower of Christ to pray for the soul of the foolish. Herein however, make no mistake, employment and evangelism are not the same. Don't employ a fool thinking you will

James McHenry

“Bibles are strong protections. Where they abound, men cannot pursue wicked courses and at the same time enjoy quiet conscience.”

— James McHenry, Revolutionary Officer; Signer of the Constitution; Ratifier of the US Constitution; Secretary of War under Presidents George Washington and John Adams.

Bernard C. Steiner, One Hundred and Ten Years of Bible Society Work in Maryland, 1810-1920 (Maryland Bible Society, 1921), p. 14.

win him to Christ. One employs a fool to his own quandary.

regard: At least two Proverbs provide hope for the foolish:

J. FOOLS HAVE NO PLACE IN PUBLIC OFFICE*

24:7 Wisdom is too exalted for a fool, He does not open his mouth in the gate.

19:25 Strike a scoffer and the naive may become shrewd, But reprove one who has understanding and he will gain knowledge.

21:11 When the scoffer is punished, the naive becomes wise; But when the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.

The gate is where in ancient times the leading minds debated the issues of life. It was no place for a fool. Today's equivalent to the gate in a republic is the floor of the Capitol. Ideally, there should be an overwhelming sense of shame on those proffering foolish ideas — they should dare not raise their microphone in the public square — and they do not when wisdom and dignity prevail in the hearts of individuals and the base culture of a nation (which is quickly escaping us in America). Akin to this is the fact:

May we all who name the name of Christ continue to pray for the foolish in our midst, that our great Savior might reach down from heaven and save all the more . . . “Such were some of [us] but you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God” (1Corinthians 6:11).

18:5 To show partiality to the wicked is not good, Nor to thrust aside the righteous in judgment.

The Capitol is the absolute last place where foolish individuals should reside.

Notice from the definition in the introduction of a fool that I am not saying one should hire only Christians and fire non-Christians. Such a belief is to travel down the road toward a city name Theocracy, which the NT does not support. There are believers who, in their spiritual immaturity, portray more of the twelve elements of foolishness than do some non-believers. This however is not normative for true followers of Christ, because the Holy Spirit will begin His sanctifying work in the heart of the truly repentant who have put their trust in the Cross.*

IV. CONCLUSION

The determinative factors for wisdom versus foolishness is not always related to age. A young man can be wise, and an older man can be foolish — what is critical is if one is willing to obey Scripture or not.

Sometimes however, fools do change. Notice the following Proverbs in this
